JOSE MOURINHO

Good evening and welcome back home for what is an historic night – our first FA Cup tie at our new home.

It is an honour to be in the dugout for this occasion and I am excited to share it with you all.

The FA Cup is such a special competition and I know what it means to everyone here. We have a rich association with this famous trophy, having lifted it eight times, with many incredible moments and goals along the way.

This competition means a lot to myself as well and I remember one of our greatest FA Cup goals very well. I can still picture myself watching Ricky Villa's fantastic goal against Manchester City in the 1981 Final as a teenager back home. There were not many live football matches on TV in Portugal when I was growing up and I used to wait with great enthusiasm every year to watch the FA Cup Final.

I have managed in cup finals in Spain, Portugal and Italy but they are not comparable with the magic of the FA Cup Final. For me, there is no greater domestic cup competition around.

We can take a lot of encouragement from our last game here against Liverpool on Saturday despite the final result not going our way. I was proud of the players' performances; they gave everything, created chances and remained solid throughout the game, I certainly think we deserved more from the contest.

"EVERY TEAM, PLAYER, COACH AND SUPPORTER DREAMS ABOUT WINNING THE FA CUP. SO, WHILE IT'S POSSIBLE, LET'S DREAM ABOUT IT"

I would like to congratulate Japhet Tanganga on making his Premier League debut on Saturday. Everybody at the Club is proud of him and all the Academy staff who worked with him over the years deserve credit for nurturing a player who showed composure and personality against Liverpool when facing some of the best attackers in the league.

I look forward to welcoming Jonathan Woodgate, Robbie Keane and their Middlesbrough side this evening. Despite never playing competitively for us at this stadium, it will always be their home. When you are a Tottenham player, you are Tottenham forever and I know how much they both meant to you during their playing days here.

You can be assured our utmost attention will be on getting the right result tonight so we have the chance to face Southampton in the fourth round. Every team, player, coach and supporter dreams about winning the FA Cup. So, while it's possible, let's dream about it.

I hope you enjoy your evening with us.

SONNY'S STRIKE WINS MONTHLY AWARD

Heung-Min Son's memorable solo goal against Burnley has been named the Premier League's Budweiser Goal of the Month for December.

Sonny ran virtually the length of the pitch after collecting possession just outside our box before hitting the back of the net in our 5-0 home victory over Sean Dyche's men on 7 December.

Recently crowned our Goal of the Decade by supporters after a social media poll, the sensational strike has now earned Son his second Goal of the Month award from the Premier League. He previously won it in November, 2018, for a similarly stylish solo run and finish in our 3-1 win over Chelsea at Wembley.

"Always to get this award is a big honour for me and especially with this unbelievable goal, a special goal for me," said the South Korean international. "So yes, it feels great and I'm really happy."

YOUNGSTERS BOUNCE BACK

A fine goal from J'Neil Bennett saw our Under-18s brush off the disappointment of their midweek FA Youth Cup exit with a well-earned 1-0 win at Brighton & Hove Albion on Saturday.

The winger was one of five players to keep their places in the starting line-up from Wednesday's loss at Wigan and he repaid coach Matt Taylor with a superb effort from the edge of the box with 17 minutes remaining as we made it three Under-18 Premier League victories in a row for the first time this season.

JAPHET'S DELIGHT AS DREAM COMES TRUE

As one 10-year journey ends, hopefully another has started for Japhet Tanganga.

The Hackney-born defender, 20, joined our youth set-up aged 10. Having tasted first team football in pre-season in August, 2018 and then impressing on tour last summer, he made his debut against Colchester United in the League Cup in September before the big one, stepping out for his Premier League debut against high-flying Liverpool on Saturday.

Roared on by the home crowd, Japhet impressed from the off. Indeed, he cleared a goalbound Roberto Firmino shot off the line inside two minutes. Starting at right-back in a 4-4-2, he was quick into the tackle, composed on the ball and showed his defensive versatility by switching to left-back for the final 20 minutes. There was only one downside to Japhet's day, but that was the most important. Liverpool won it 1-0 thanks to Firmino's 37th-minute strike and despite our best efforts, that's how it stayed.

Japhet departed to a standing ovation, and then told us: "It means a lot, honestly. From a young age you dream about this. You see guys on TV, and you are like 'I want to be there, I want to have that opportunity' and when it comes, it's just a great feeling. Again, it would have been a much better feeling if we'd won the game. I'm happy to make my debut but the feeling is still disappointing.

"I've made my debut, but like the game, it's gone now. I'll celebrate with my family, they are all here, but now it's onto the next one. Hopefully I'll get a chance against Middlesbrough. After that, we'll just see how it goes from there. I'll keep working hard in training, doing the right things, listening to what the gaffer wants, just keep my head down and leave it to the gaffer."

RIANNA DEALS HAMMERS BLOW

A dramatic late winner from Rianna Dean handed Spurs Women a first win of 2020 with a 2-1 victory over West Ham at the Hive on Sunday.

Full debutant Emma Mitchell's brilliant left-footed strike gave us the lead on the half-hour mark and, as the game approached its conclusion, it looked like that would be enough for the win.

Disaster struck in the 90th minute, though, when Kenza Dali's low shot found its way into the net. However, we didn't lie down. Angela Addison's delightful cross was met by Dean who powered a bullet header into the net to secure a dramatic win in the 96th minute with her third goal in as many appearances against the Hammers this season.

As part of an occasional feature, Andy Greeves takes at a look back at a match in which a substitute has made a real impact for us. Today he remembers Garry Brooke's contribution in our 2-0 FA Cup fourth round victory over Hull City in 1981.

Our 3-1 victory over Queens Park Rangers in an FA Cup third round replay at White Hart Lane on January 7, 1981 set up a home clash with then-Third Division side Hull City in the next round.

The match against the Tigers on 24 January was played amidst the backdrop of the old West Stand at the Lane – which originally opened back in 1909 – being demolished. The structure was being removed to make way for a new 6,500-seater stand, featuring 72 executive boxes, which opened just over a year later.

Despite only three of the four stands being open, a healthy crowd of 37,523 packed into the ground for the fourth round tie. They witnessed an exciting first half in which Hull goalkeeper Tony Norman was in inspired form.

In the opening exchanges, he made a fine save – tipping a Garth Crooks effort from outside the penalty area over the crossbar at full-stretch at the Park Lane end of the ground. Norman also kept out a close-range Crooks header from a pin-point Glenn Hoddle cross. At the other end, Keith Edwards got to a lofted pass from Brian Marwood before Barry Daines but ended up putting his lob-shot over our goalkeeper just wide of the far post from the edge of the 18-yard-box.

Our domination of the match continued in the second half but Norman continued to frustrate Keith Burkinshaw's side with further saves from Crooks and strike-partner Steve Archibald. In all, we managed 23 shots to Hull's four that afternoon while we won 17 corners to the Tigers' two.

With the tie seemingly bound for a replay at Hull's former Boothferry Park ground, Burkinshaw brought then 20-year-old midfielder Garry Brooke on as a substitute for Ossie Ardiles. The Bethnal Green-born player got our all-important breakthrough on 83 minutes with a firmly-struck shot from outside the penalty area that nestled into the bottom corner of Norman's goal.

Brooke also played a part in our second goal of the afternoon, scored with a minute of normal time remaining. His 30-yard pass found Steve Perryman close to the right touchline, deep in Hull's half of the field. Our skipper found Crooks, who in turn teed-up Archibald and he span and fired past Norman.

We went on to win the FA Cup during the 1980/81 season, beating Coventry City, Exeter City and Wolverhampton Wanderers to reach the tournament's 100th final against Manchester City on 9 May, 1981. Following a 1-1 draw after extra-time in the original game, we returned to Wembley Stadium five days later for the replay. A brace from Ricky Villa and a further strike from Crooks sealed our 3-2 victory.

Brooke featured as a substitute for Villa in the final while he remained on the bench in the replay during a career that saw him make 101 competitive appearances for us between 1980 and 1985. Having made his Spurs debut in our 3-2 home defeat to West Bromwich Albion on 29 November, 1981, he scored the first of his 18 goals in our colours with a brace in a 4-4 draw with Southampton at White Hart Lane on Boxing Day 1981.

Brooke was involved in a near fatal car crash in February 1983 but recovered in time to feature in four UEFA Cup matches during the 1983/84 season as we went on to win the competition. He moved to Norwich City during the summer of 1985, having spent a period on loan with Swedish side GAIS while with us.

Brooke later featured for Dutch side Groningen, Wimbledon, Stoke City (loan), Brentford and Reading, while he also turned out for non-league clubs including Baldock Town, Colchester United, Wivenhoe Town, St Albans City, Romford, Worthing, Cornard United and Braintree Town towards the end of his career.

After retiring from playing, Brooke ran a sports shop and soccer school in Muswell Hill and worked as a match reporter for the Professional Footballers' Association and Press Association. He has regularly featured for our Spurs Legends side over the years and was once a part of our Football in the Community scheme.

GIO'S JOURNEY

Settled in and enjoying his new life in north London, we sat down with summer signing Giovani Lo Celso to talk about his early days in the game, his new beginnings and a rather different Christmas this year for the Argentine.

It has been quite the journey in his footballing career so far for Giovani Lo Celso.

Despite being just 23 years old, the creative midfielder has already played in four different countries experiencing different leagues and tactics, cultures and languages, all of which have had a profound impact on his character and his style of play.

He had enjoyed spells at French giants Paris Saint-Germain and Spanish side Real Betis before joining us on loan, but it was in his early days in the game, in his hometown of Rosario, where his passion for the game really blossomed.

The city of Rosario is a hotbed of football in Argentina. Not only are two of the nation's biggest clubs – Rosario Central and Newell's Old Boys – based there but it is also a region which has produced some of the most famous names in the game. Angel Di Maria, Ezequiel Lavezzi and Mauro Icardi were all born and raised in the Santa Fe province, while it is also the birthplace of a certain Lionel Messi.

It was with Rosario Central that Gio began his career, coming through the youth system of the side referred to aptly as the Academia – his boyhood club. He made his league debut in the blue and yellow stripes of Central at the age of 19 and he enjoyed three very encouraging years with his hometown club. In his second season, he helped them to a third-place finish in the Argentina Primera Division which secured their place in the Copa Libertadores – they lost out in the quarter finals of the competition to Davinson Sanchez's Atletico Nacional.

The young midfielder had impressed for his side and scouts from across the Atlantic Ocean were noticing him however, while he had ambitions of playing further afield, his time with his home club was not only special but also very important in the formative spell of his career.

"I CAN LOOK BACK TO WHEN I STARTED TO WHERE I AM PLAYING NOW AND I AM VERY GRATEFUL FOR THOSE OPPORTUNITIES I HAVE HAD SO FAR IN MY LIFE"

"In Rosario, football is lived in a very special way," he explained as we discussed his early development in the sport. "As a child I always dreamed that I would play for Rosario Central. I had my professional debut with the club, and it was in a team where we knew we had the individuals as well as the group to be able to have some great moments on the pitch.

"Unfortunately, we could not crown the time with a title, but that was the beginning of everything that happened to me so far in my career.

"During my time with Rosario, there was interest from England, Everton were interested, but I was very young and my dream, and that of my family, was for me to begin my career in the first team of Rosario Central, because it was my boyhood club.

"After that, of course I considered the possibility of playing in Europe. I feel lucky that I have been able to fulfil my first dream of playing for Rosario. I can look back to when I started to where I am playing now and I am very grateful for those opportunities I have had so far in my life. They are not things that happen to all players, so I try to take advantage of it and enjoy it a lot.

"For example, when I was a boy, I went to ask Angel Di María for a photo at his home in Rosario, because he was my idol. Then I was able to play with Neymar in Paris and, well, you know what Lionel Messi represents for everyone. Playing with him as a partner for the Argentina national team are proud moments for me. And now I am in the Premier League all these years later with a huge club. This is a very special moment for me."

"JOSE IS A WINNING COACH, WITH A LOT OF HISTORY AND SUCCESS AS A MANAGER. HE HAS BEEN IN GREAT CLUBS AND TODAY WE HAVE HIM HERE WITH US"

For Gio though, there was a slow and frustrating start to his time as a Spur. Having signed for us on deadline day on a season-long loan deal from Betis, the Argentine international appeared in three of our first four games but then suffered a hip injury while on duty with La Albiceleste in the middle of September.

Just as he was beginning to build up steam in the Premier League, the setback saw him miss eight games. However, since recovering from that issue, he has missed only five games while he has played in each of our last four outings. And he admits now he is just focussing on what is in front of him as he looks to continue his development under Jose Mourinho.

"My injury cost my progress here a little when I arrived," Gio explained. "It particularly cost me even more because I was coming to a new club, to a new league, but now I am adapted to the club and my teammates, also to the new coaching staff.

"Coming here as well, it is very special that four Argentines are all in one team together in England with Juan Foyth, Erik Lamela and Paulo Gazzaniga also here, but of course it is because many Argentines have previously played in the Premier League and have done very well in England. They have helped me a lot to adapt and I am happy to have them as teammates.

"With Jose Mourinho, all is going well. He is a winning coach, with a lot of history and success as a manager. He has been in great clubs and today we have him here with us.

"We know that it is a long season and that there are very important matches ahead and we need to make sure we are at our best as a team. Personally I hope to continue growing and improving as a player and as a person day by day. Right now, I feel good, working day to day to help the team and I am focussed on our work and what will come. I feel good and happy to be here."

This year was the first Christmas that Gio has spent away from Argentina, away from his home. During his spells at PSG and Betis, with Ligue 1 and La Liga enjoying winter breaks, the midfielder would usually return home to Rosario during the festive period but this year, with our flurry of December fixtures, our number 18 admitted it was quite a different experience for him as he celebrated the holidays in north London.

"I knew about how difficult and busy the Premier League is in December before coming here, there are many games, but we were physically and mentally prepared to play those matches.

"And my family is always behind me, they have always accompanied me in my career. In that period, I had to be in England as we had games in the Premier League at Christmas, but I looked forward to being involved in this different experience. I also know that my family are always there for me, even when I am away from home and in the end they came to me for Christmas and the new year, which made it even more special."

Previewing this evening's FA Cup third round replay with Middlesbrough, looking at the form guide, previous encounters and a whole host of vital statistics…

DID YOU KNOW?

We are unbeaten in our last nine home games against Boro in all competitions (W6 D3) but did lose a League Cup quarter-final penalty shootout in December, 2003.

2015
Burnley were 2-0 up inside eight minutes in this 2015 replay, but goals from Paulinho, Capoue, Chiriches and Rose turned the game on its head at the Lane.
2016
Having been held at home 2-2 by league leaders Leicester City, goals from Heung-Min Son and Nacer Chadli gave us a 2-0 victory at the King Power Stadium.
1996
Division Three Hereford United held us 1-1 at home to earn a replay at the Lane, where a Sheringham hat-trick and a double from Armstrong saw us to a 5-1 victory.
2007
After a goalless draw away to Cardiff City, we made no mistake in the home replay thanks to goals from Lennon, Keane, Malbranque and Defoe.
2008
Dimitar Berbatov's brace helped us to a 2-2 draw with Reading in N17. While Robbie Keane scored the only goal of the replay in the 15th minute at the Madejski Stadium.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS

Third round replays have been a regular occurrence down the years for us, so let's take a look back at five recent victories…

SONNY ON SONG

Heung-Min Son has had a hand in 17 goals in just 18 FA Cup appearances for us, scoring 10 goals and assisting a further seven.

HOME SWEET HOME

We are unbeaten in our last 40 FA Cup home matches against teams from a lower division (W33 D7) since a 0-1 loss to Nottingham Forest in January 1975.

FLETCH'S FIGURES

Boro's Ashley Fletcher has scored or assisted three goals in his last three starts in the FA Cup, with two goals and one assist.

Prior to the weekend just gone, we had won just one of our four matches in the Premier League with that victory coming against Brighton. But looking further back, we went into the Liverpool game having suffered just four defeats in our previous 15 matches in all competitions, winning seven of those.

Having opened their Championship season with just four wins from 22 matches, Jonathan Woodgate's side turned the corner in impressive style over the festive period, winning four on the bounce against Stoke City, Huddersfield, West Brom and Preston. They were at home to Derby County at the weekend.

Scorer of Middlesbrough's opener when we visited the Riverside Stadium last week, Ashley Fletcher is a much-travelled young forward with an impressive eye for goal. He joined Manchester United as a 13-year-old, coming through the ranks at Old Trafford ahead of a loan spell with Barnsley, for whom he scored nine goals. He then joined West Ham on a permanent deal, with his only strike for the Hammers coming against former employers Manchester United in the League Cup. He signed for Middlesbrough for £6.5m in the summer of 2017, but then spent time on loan at Sunderland during 2018. Fletcher is also a former England Under-20 international, with two goals in three games at that level.

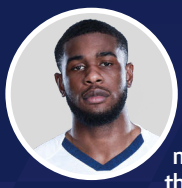
TRUE COLOURS



We all have our favourites when it comes to past Spurs kits and, sometimes, they can evoke memories of specific games, moments and the players who wore them. Continuing our series for the 2019/20 season, Billy Shaw chats to our players – past and present – to find out what comes into their minds when they look back at a selection of our shirts from seasons gone by. Today, young centre-back Japhet Tanganga is in the hot seat…

SPURS AWAY KIT, 2012/13

"To be honest, I could name a few players for this blue one," said Japhet, pointing to our away kit from 2012/13.

"I was only young but obviously I watched Spurs a lot and so I remember seeing Gareth Bale score some goals in this kit. The one at Swansea maybe?

"Also Rafa van der Vaart pops into my head, even though he'd probably have been coming to the end of his time here.

"Scott Parker is another one – I just remember this shirt along with the white home version because of those players."

The Swansea fixture Japhet is referring to was our 2-1 win at the Liberty Stadium in March, 2013, when Bale set up Jan Vertonghen to score and vice versa for the second goal.

And our talented young defender clearly has a precise memory as van der Vaart wore this navy shirt, which featured blue chevrons running down the back, in his penultimate appearance for the Club away at Newcastle United in August, 2012, before he moved back to German side Hamburg.

SPURS HOME KIT, 2013/14

"I'm going to give this one to Nabil Bentaleb," said Japhet, casting his eyes over our 2013/14 home strip, which featured the light blue HP logo on the front of the shirt.

"I don't know why but looking at this, it just makes me think of the time when Nabil made his breakthrough into the first team.

"Tim Sherwood had recently taken over as manager and he brought Nabil into the team. I was 14 at the time but I remember Nabil – also I'm inclined to remember Emmanuel Adebayor around the same sort of period. He scored a few goals under Tim and I can picture him in this shirt."

A battling central midfielder, Bentaleb's senior debut came at Southampton shortly before Christmas in 2013 when we wore our light blue away strip, but his first outing in the home kit that's under the spotlight here came on Boxing Day when he went on as a substitute in a 1-1 draw with West Bromwich Albion at White Hart Lane. He made his first start a couple of weeks later at Arsenal in the FA Cup. He went on to make 66 appearances for us before leaving for Schalke, initially on loan, in 2016.

Striker Adebayor scored 13 goals in all competitions during the second half of that campaign after Sherwood afforded him regular game time.

SPURS AWAY KIT, 2015/16

Our away kit for the 2015/16 campaign featured a light blue top with darker blue blocks down the front of the shirt, while the navy shorts and socks also included light blue detailing on them.

For Japhet, the sight of this strip reminds him of one player and one game in particular…

"Dele!" he smiled. "I'm thinking of the first team's away game at Southampton where Dele got clattered by one of the defenders in the middle, then Harry (Kane) picked the ball up and scored after going past Virgil van Dijk like he wasn't there.

"Dele also scored I believe, and we won the game well. Again, I was still in the youth team but I can just picture Dele wearing this kit. He was quite young himself at the time."

Indeed, then-19-year-old midfielder Dele was in the midst of a superb first season in our colours when we went to St Mary's shortly before Christmas in 2015. Both our goals arrived in the lead-up to half-time as we ran out 2-0 winners.

He finished that campaign with a total of 10 Premier League goals and 46 appearances in all competitions to his name, was named PFA Young Player of the Year and earned a spot in the PFA Premier League Team of the Year.

"Fernando Llorente!" said Japhet as he was reminded of last season's green third strip, which featured a unique depiction of our local area here in N17 in the pattern on the front of the shirt.

"I'm thinking of Fernando and the Champions League run," he continued. "Obviously everyone will remember Lucas Moura and the hat-trick against Ajax that sent us through to the final but, for me, I've also got images in my mind of that goal that Fernando scored at Manchester City in the quarter-final. What a crazy game!

"Obviously Fernando played in the semi-final, too, and was involved in the winning goal right at the end so, yes, I'll say him for this kit."

Making its debut on the opening day of the Premier League season as we won 2-1 at Newcastle United, the strip in question was our dedicated away outfit in last term's fabled European run.

We wore it away to PSV in the group stage, but it was remembered more for the quarter-final and semi-final epics in the latter rounds of the competition. Llorente's goal at the Etihad ultimately sent us through to the last four, his bundled-in effort from a corner making it 4-3 to City on the night but, crucially, allowing us to progress on away goals after a 4-4 aggregate draw.

Ledley and Robbie at the Lane in 2009

KING'S MEMORIES OF RETURNING TEAM-MATES

Ledley King lived every second of Robbie Keane and Jonathan Woodgate's time at Spurs – now his friends and former team-mates are plotting our downfall in the FA Cup!

'Woody' and 'Keano' are manager and assistant respectively at Middlesbrough and they arrive here with their team this evening hoping to cause an upset in this third round replay, following the 1-1 draw at the Riverside Stadium 10 days ago.

One of the great strikers of the modern era and the Republic of Ireland's record appearance maker (146) and goalscorer (68), Keano scored 122 goals in 306 appearances in two spells at Spurs between 2002-11.

Central defender Woody famously partnered Ledley at the back in the League Cup Final win over Chelsea in 2008. That was the first time they'd played together! Woody scored the winner that day in only his fifth appearance for us. He went on to play 64 times between 2008-11.

Of course, one-club man Ledley was there all the way. A product of our Academy, the classy centre-half made 323 appearances between 1999-2012, before being forced to retire through injury.

"I could always see Robbie going into coaching and management, definitely," said Ledley. "He's probably the most passionate player in terms of pure love for the game. We all think we love football, but Robbie really loved getting up every morning and coming in to training, quite often first in, last out and it's no surprise he played to such a comparatively late age (38) because of his dedication and passion for the game.

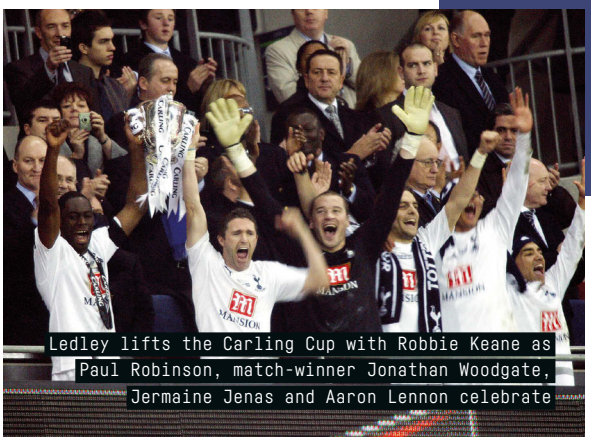
"It's also no surprise he's gone straight into coaching. Knowing Robbie, he will want to test himself every day in the same way he did as a player.

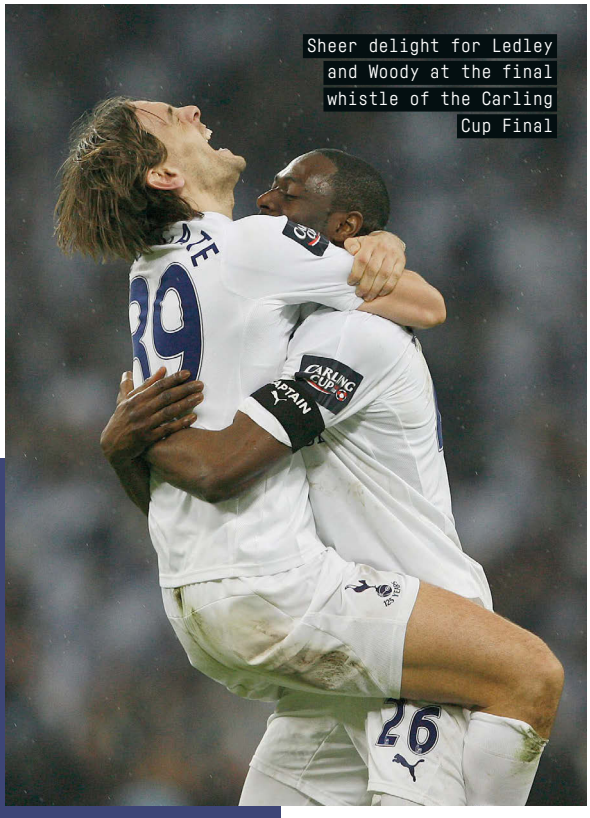
"Robbie is always full of energy and he has that hunger and desire to improve everyone around him, to get everyone to work as hard as he does. Also, when the time was right, he's a great laugh, great to be around. But when it was time to work, it was work. He played at the Club for many, many years, loved Spurs, loved playing here and I can safely say every one of his team-mates loved having him around."

Ledley was equally as wholesome in his praise for his former defensive partner.

"Woody was a great player," continued our Club Ambassador. "Unfortunately, he was similar to me in that injuries let us down throughout our careers. He was quicker than many gave him credit for, great in the air and just had that understanding of the game. Top players make the game look easy, and Woody was like that.



Ledley lifts the Carling Cup with Robbie Keane as Paul Robinson, match-winner Jonathan Woodgate, Jermaine Jenas and Aaron Lennon celebrate



Sheer delight for Ledley and Woody at the final whistle of the Carling Cup Final

"He was never over-stretched, never panicked, always calm, understood the game. As everyone knows, the first time we played alongside each other was in the 2008 League Cup Final. It just clicked. We were of a similar age, understood our bodies, understood the position.

"It was such a shame we couldn't play more together because when we did, we felt confident the team could beat anyone. He had that aura about him and as a defender, people recognised him as one of the best. It was a pleasure to play alongside him."

Born in Nunthorpe, just outside Middlesbrough, Woody retired in May, 2016 after his third spell 'home' at the Riverside. He spent time scouting for Liverpool before returning to Boro again, this time as assistant manager, in March, 2017. He also spent time in Boro's Academy before taking over the manager's position in June last year, appointing Robbie as his assistant.

Robbie had a very brief spell in charge of ATK in India before joining Mick McCarthy's Republic of Ireland coaching team just after retiring from playing.

Now they are back in N17 and facing their former team in the FA Cup with the prize for tonight's winners an away trip to Southampton in the fourth round.

Ledley added: "If there was one team they could wish to play against, as a pair, it's definitely Tottenham. They will be excited, they'll understand the threats we have and it's a great experience for them at such an early stage of their careers to face one of their old teams, test themselves and try to get that notch on the goalpost.

"They'll see it as a no-lose situation. It will be a special occasion for them and I'm sure they will be looking to cause an upset."

THE STADIUM STORY

We have produced a magnificent coffee table book, Destination Tottenham, to celebrate the opening of our iconic new home.

The book tells the story of the Tottenham Hotspur Stadium from the very beginning, using sensational photography and interviews with the key people involved behind the scenes to document the 18-year journey from planning and design through to the construction and opening of our amazing new stadium – with all the hurdles that had to be overcome along the way.

Put together by our award-winning publishing team, Destination Tottenham gives a unique insight into the architecture, engineering feats and incredible attention to detail that has brought London's newest landmark to life.

Here are just a few of the 336 pages from the book to whet your appetite:

GREAT SCOT!

NICKNAMED 'PETER THE GREAT' AS A PLAYER, FORMER SCOTLAND INTERNATIONAL PETER MCWILLIAM ALSO GAINED ADMIRATION FOR HIS ACHIEVEMENTS AS MANAGER WITH BOTH OURSELVES AND MIDDLESBROUGH

Born in Inverness on 21 September, 1879, Peter McWilliam started his playing career with local side Inverness Thistle before signing for Newcastle United in 1902. He made his Magpies debut against Middlesbrough on 18 October, 1902 – the first of his 242 appearances for the club through until 1911, during which time he scored 12 goals.

The left-half turned out for Newcastle United during a glorious period for the St James' Park club at the start of the 20th century. He was a key member of the team that won the old First Division title in 1904/05, 1906/07 and 1908/09 and featured in the Magpies' FA Cup Final defeats in 1905, 1906 and 1908. The club – and McWilliam – got their hands on the trophy for the first time in 1910, beating Barnsley 2-0 in an FA Cup Final replay staged at Everton's Goodison Park ground.

Peter (centre, wearing hat) watches on as his Spurs players enjoy a game of darts in a recreation room at the Lane in July, 1938

'Peter the Great' as he was known affectionately by Newcastle supporters, retired from playing the following year, after suffering a serious knee injury when captaining Scotland in a British Home Championship match against Wales in Cardiff on 6 March, 1911. He won eight senior caps for Scotland during his career.

McWilliam's final appearance for the Magpies came in their 3-0 defeat at Liverpool on 27 February, 1911. Two days earlier, he featured in their 3-2 victory over Hull City in the FA Cup third round during a season in which the Tynesiders went on to reach the final once again.

McWilliam became our manager in December 1912. At that point in our history, we had been without a manager since Fred Kirkham resigned in July 1908, with the Club directors taking care of first team matters thereafter. We were elected to the Football League in 1908 and achieved promotion from the Second to the First Division in our debut season in the competition in 1908/09. When McWilliam arrived at White Hart Lane, we were struggling in 17th position in the table and were just three points above the relegation zone. We beat Manchester City 4-0 in his first match in charge on Boxing Day 1912 and by the end of the campaign, we had maintained our top-flight status.

The Football League was suspended between 1915 and 1918 due to the outbreak of World War I. When the competition resumed ahead of the 1919/20 campaign, we discovered we had been demoted out of an expanded, 22-club First Division. Arsenal were admitted to the top flight in our place, despite only finishing sixth in the Second Division in the last full season of the Football League prior to World War I.

The disappointment at White Hart Lane was short lived as McWilliam's side stormed to the Second Division title and gained promotion in 1919/20, finishing six points clear of second-placed Huddersfield Town. Crowds in excess of 40,000 became common place in N17 during the 1920/21 campaign, as we finished sixth in the First Division playing an attractive brand of passing football that we have long since been associated with.

The season also saw us win the FA Cup for the second time in our history. Bristol Rovers, Bradford City, Southend United, Aston Villa and Preston North End were dispatched en route to the final against Wolverhampton Wanderers, which was staged at Chelsea's Stamford Bridge. A solitary goal from Jimmy Dimmock was enough to see us triumph in front of a crowd of 72,805. In the process, McWilliam became the first person to win the FA Cup as a player and then a manager. The following season, his Spurs side finished as runners-up to Liverpool in the First Division table.

McWilliam departed Spurs for Middlesbrough in 1927 having been lured north with a salary offer of £1,500 a year – almost double his White Hart Lane pay. The manager arrived at Ayresome Park towards the end of an incredible season for Boro that saw them score 122 league goals on their way to winning the Second Division title. George Camsell – who is the club's all-time top goal scorer with 345 goals in 453 games between 1925 and 1939 – netted an incredible 63 times that campaign, which included a club-record 59 league goals.

Middlesbrough suffered relegation in 1927/28, but McWilliam steered the club to their second promotion in three years the following campaign as they again won the Second Division title. Boro remained a top-flight outfit for the remainder of the manager's time at Ayresome Park and achieved a seventh-place finish in 1929/30 prior to his departure from the club in 1934.

After he left Middlesbrough, McWilliam briefly worked as a scout for Arsenal before returning as our manager in May 1938. The Scot's second period in charge was largely overshadowed by the outbreak of World War II but, notably during that period, he brought a number of players to the Club – such as Ron Burgess and Bill Nicholson – who would go on to feature in our first title-winning side of 1950/51.

Suffering from ill health, McWilliam resigned as manager in June 1942 and moved with his wife to her former home town of Redcar. He passed away in the town on 1 October, 1951 at the age of 72. He is buried close to Middlesbrough at Kirkleatham Cemetery.

BORO CONNECTIONS

In addition to Peter McWilliam, there are a host of other playing, managerial and coaching connections between ourselves and Middlesbrough.

Boro's current Head Coach Jonathan Woodgate scored our winning goal in our 2-1 extra-time triumph over Chelsea in the 2008 League Cup Final while his assistant Robbie Keane netted 122 times in 306 appearances for us in two spells with us between 2002 and 2011. Cyril Knowles started his career with Middlesbrough prior to featuring in 506 matches and scoring 17 times for us between 1964 and 1976. Paul Gascoigne turned out for Boro between 1998 and 2000 after previously appearing in 112 matches and netting 33 times for us from 1988 to 1991.

Nick Barmby, Jack Elkes, Joe Meek, Egyptian striker Mido, Kyle Naughton, Graeme Souness, Mark Yeates, Luke Young and Christian Ziege have all represented Spurs and Middlesbrough at competitive, first-team level while ex-Boro outside-left Christopher Carrick briefly turned out for us during our time in the Southern League in the early 20th century.

The late Ugo Ehiogu, who sadly passed away on 21 April, 2017 at the age of 44, made 149 appearances for Middlesbrough between 2000 and 2007. Having arrived for a club-record transfer from Aston Villa, he was part of the Boro side that won the League Cup in 2004. He was appointed as our Under-21s (later reclassified as Under-23s) Coach in July 2014 – a role he held up to his tragic and untimely death.

‘WE WERE LIKE BROTHERS’

PAT JENNINGS ON FORMER BORO AND SPURS STAR CYRIL KNOWLES

By Paul Miles

Cyril Knowles played for two clubs in a glittering career – Middlesbrough and Spurs.

It kicked off with one season at Boro’s old Ayresome Park in 1963/64 before Bill Nicholson snapped him up in 1964. ‘Nice one, Cyril’ played 506 times for us, collecting the FA Cup, two League Cups and the UEFA Cup, before injury forced his retirement in 1976.

Another colossus of Spurs, Pat Jennings, joined us soon after Cyril in the summer of 1964. The friends, who shared digs as youngsters (Pat was 18, Cyril a year older when they signed) just one of Pat’s goal kicks away from White Hart Lane, went on to become two of only four players to feature in over 500 games for the Club and star in one of our most successful eras.

Speaking as we prepare to face Middlesbrough here at the Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in an FA Cup third round replay, Pat fondly recalled those early days with Cyril and a player as charismatic off the pitch as he was on it...

“We joined within a couple of weeks of each other and were in digs together,” said Pat, third in our all-time list on 590 appearances. “I’ll always remember, it was Mrs Galloway’s, St Paul’s Road, which was literally around the back of the stadium. I still go past there now when I’m coming in for home matches.

“It seems incredible now that there were two first team players living in digs together like that. It was just something you did in those days, much like the young players in the Academy now.

“But for two first team players to be there...

on matchdays, we'd always hear all the trucks arriving early, the fans buzzing around. We still drove into the stadium and funnily enough, we both had the same car – and the same key would open both cars! Whichever car was closest would be the car we'd travel in to training or matches!

"I'd got used to living in digs a little because of my days at Watford (Pat joined Watford aged 17 in April, 1963). I'd never been away from home until then. I joined Tottenham just before my 19th birthday. In those days, Tottenham was us. We were up and down the High Road all hours. We used to go shopping at Bruce Grove.

"Cyril was brilliant. A lovely, lovely lad. I used to go back to his home in Yorkshire, a village called Fitzwilliam, up to his mum's and he came with me over to Ireland at times as well. They were great, great days and that was a brilliant team."

What a team, indeed. Jennings, Kinnear, Knowles – the first three names on the teamsheet in the 1967 FA Cup Final, the League Cup wins of 1971 and 1973 and UEFA Cup triumph in 1972.

"Cyril was brilliant," added Pat. "Both he and Joe Kinnear were trailblazers for the attacking full-back. Cyril had magic in that left foot.

"I remember we played Torino in the Anglo Italian Cup in 1971 and the two of them absolutely rinsed Torino that night. They couldn't cope with them because full-backs in those days didn't really attack. But our two boys, every time they had an opportunity they were up the line getting in crosses for the likes of Martin Chivers and Alan Gilzean.

"I always remember Cyril scored twice when we had to beat Leeds United to stay up in 1975. We beat them 4-2 that night. They were soon off to the European Cup Final. That was a special night because none of us wanted to take the club down."

"I ALWAYS REMEMBER CYRIL AS A BRILLIANT PLAYER AND A SMASHING LAD, A GREAT LAUGH. HE REALLY WAS THE HEART AND SOUL OF THE PARTY"

New signing Cyril is welcomed to the Lane by manager Bill Nicholson

Subject of the famous chant and pop song 'Nice One, Cyril' released in 1973 and now adopted by fans for Heung-Min Son, Cyril was forced to retire due to a knee injury in 1976.

He had brief spells as manager at Hertford Town and as our Yorkshire scout before joining the coaching staff at Doncaster Rovers in 1977. Four years there were followed by two years back at Middlesbrough where he served as reserve and first team coach. He was manager at Darlington between 1983-87 and then took Torquay to Wembley in May, 1989. Indeed, during his time at Plainmoor, Cyril guided Torquay to a 1-0 win against us in the first leg of our League Cup second round tie. We won the second leg 3-0 at the Lane.

Unfortunately, tragedy wasn't far away. Cyril served Hartlepool United as manager from December, 1989 but was diagnosed with cancer in February, 1991 and passed away six months later, 31 August, 1991 in Middlesbrough General Hospital, aged just 47.

That clearly hit Pat hard. "His illness came out of the blue, unbelievable," he said. "Yes, that was tough. We were like brothers, you know... I always remember Cyril as a brilliant player and a smashing lad, a great laugh. He really was the heart and soul of the party."

ALL SMILES AS FANS MEET PLAYERS AT SPURS SHOP

Excited Spurs fans got the chance to meet Ben Davies and Michel Vorm when they made a special appearance at the Tottenham Experience recently.

During the event, the pair met fans of all ages for autographs and photos as the Christmas holiday period drew to a close.

Both players joined the Club from Swansea City in the summer of 2014, with Welsh international left-back Ben since making 177 appearances in all competitions, captaining the side for the first time in our Premier League clash at Everton in November.

Dutch international goalkeeper Michel, meanwhile, has made 47 appearances, recently re-joining the Club having been released at the end of his contract last summer.

Speaking at the session, Ben said: "It's always a pleasure to meet fans and show our appreciation for their incredible support all year round. Hopefully we've made a lot of people happy."

Michel added: "It was great to see so many fans today. Events like this are a small way we can give something back to them."

The signing session marked the end of our programme of festive activities at the Tottenham Experience, located on Tottenham High Road, including a Christmas Jumper design competition and an arts and crafts workshop.

Boro's former stadium Ayresome Park was just 18-months old when we travelled there to face the First Division side for the very first time in the FA Cup back in February, 1905.

We were still a Southern League team at the time, but went ahead in the seventh minute through Alex Glen in front of a crowd of 20,340. Boro were struggling in Division One although they rallied to equalise through Henry Astley on 37 minutes.

The fact we earned a replay was thanks to goalkeeper John Eggett, who saved Billy Agnew's penalty on the stroke of half-time.

Five days later, the teams reconvened in north London for the replay and what proved to be another tight game with one decisive moment late in the contest.

Boro started brightly and should have gone ahead when Daisy Bell missed an open goal inside five minutes but after that, we dominated the game and it was only an inspired performance from visiting goalkeeper Tim Williamson that kept us at bay.

WILL THE CUP COME SOUTH?

According to a newspaper report of the game: 'Spurs had three-fourths of the play, but it seemed that nothing would come off for them…Williamson again had the angels on his side. His form in goal savoured of the miraculous,' it read.

There were just three minutes remaining when Joe Walton swung in a deep corner, a scramble ensued in the area and Charlie O'Hagan was in the right place to eventually poke the ball home.

We needed a replay against Newcastle United in the next round after a 1-1 draw at the Lane, but lost 4-0 on Tyneside.

MIDDLESBROUGH 1 (Scott)

It was over 50 years later before ourselves and Boro were paired again in the FA Cup, this time for a fourth round clash in north London. The visitors were in the Second Division at the time, while we were languishing fourth from bottom of Division One under manager Jimmy Anderson's guidance.

On a wet and misty day, with visibility not great and on a pitch that cut up very quickly, it was Middlesbrough who stole the lead in the 17th minute through Joe Scott, having already missed a glorious chance to go ahead for Charlie Wayman.

We levelled it up through an unlikely source as Maurice Norman sneaked up from defence to head home a Tony Marchi cross past Rolando Ugolini on the half hour mark – one of only two FA Cup goals in his 10-year Spurs career.

We took control after that, George Robb giving us the lead on 64 minutes while Dave Dunmore wrapped up the win three minutes from time. We went all the way to the semi-finals that season, only to lose 1-0 to Manchester City at Villa Park.

SPURS 4 (Mackay 2, Saul 2)
MIDDLESBROUGH 0

Before this season, it was 1966 when we last faced Boro in the competition with White Hart Lane once again the venue.

While Bill Nicholson's team sat fifth in the First Division and were on form, our Teesside visitors were beset by injuries and found themselves towards the lower reaches of Division Two.

Once again, the harsh winter had left the pitch in a dreadful state with one newspaper report describing it as 'a ripe compound of sand, icy water and slime'! That might have helped Boro to produce an upset on the day, but the gulf in class between the two teams was evident from the start and we ran out commanding winners.

Dave Mackay headed in Jimmy Robertson's cross to put us in front on 20 minutes and just three minutes later, Frank Saul finished well to double our lead. The same two players also scored after the interval, the imperious Mackay converting a penalty after Cliff Jones was brought down by Dick Rooks before Saul rounded off the scoring 15 minutes from time.

After a 4-3 win over Burnley in round four, Preston ended our interest in the fifth round of the competition with a 2-1 win at Deepdale.

What does the name Middlesbrough stir in the memory of club historian John Fennelly? We find out.

1 BILLY MINTER

Billy Minter scored seven times against Middlesbrough in a Tottenham career that started in 1908 and would see him stay on at the club as trainer, manager and assistant secretary.

The powerful inside-forward was a regular marksman for us with 156 goals in 344 appearances in all competitions during his Spurs playing career.

He scored twice for us at Boro in 1910 where we lost 3-4 having also gone down 1-3 at home to them the previous October, soon after our promotion from Division Two. And he was also on target the following season when we beat Middlesbrough 6-2 at the Lane.

Due to military services, he did not play for us during World War One but returned to help us regain our top-flight status in 1920.

2 CHARLIE O'HAGAN

It took us 10 attempts before we won a league game on Teeside. We finally managed it in 1923 when our Scottish centre-forward Alex Lindsay scored the only goal.

Lindsay had also scored twice against Boro the previous week in a 2-0 victory at the Lane in a season that would see Middlesbrough relegated as the First Division's bottom club at the conclusion.

But we had managed a draw there in our Southern League days in 1904 when we knocked Division One side Boro out of the FA Cup at the first round stage. The first encounter ended 1-1 before Ireland international Charlie O'Hagan scored the only goal in the replay at White Hart Lane.

O'Hagan, who had joined us from Everton the years before, left us for Middlesbrough in July 1906 but only stayed a few months and was with Aberdeen by the end of the year. He later managed Norwich City and coached in Spain and Germany.

3 BILL NICHOLSON

After crowd trouble marred our 1974 UEFA Cup Final defeat by Feyenoord, Bill Nick began to lose his affection for the game that had been his life.

We subsequently lost our opening four league games of the following season and when Middlesbrough arrived at the Lane to knock us out of the League Cup with a 4-0 second round triumph, Bill opted to resign.

It was the end of a special era at Tottenham which had seen Nicholson arrive as a player in 1936 when he was brought down from his Scarborough home on trial. He was a pro within two years and played for Boro as a 'guest' during World War Two.

4 PAUL GASCOIGNE

Future Boro man Paul Gascoigne inspired a piece of retail enterprise when we visited Ayresome Park in January 1989. He had appeared on TV eating a well-known chocolate bar and a trader was doing a roaring trade from a cardboard box just outside the stadium selling what he termed 'Gazza Bars'.

It was Erik Thorstvedt's first away game as a Spurs player and he was told by his new team-mates that he should greet the home fans behind the goal as he went to take up his position between the sticks. He must have received enough chocolate in return to set up his own business!

The match ended 2-2 as Boro headed for relegation.

5 JIMMY ROBERTSON

The Scottish international winger, who scored one of our goals in the 1967 FA Cup Final, was spotted by Boro's youth scouts while playing schools' football in Glasgow and added to the junior ranks at Ayresome Park.

He failed to make the grade there but did so at St Mirren where he turned professional in May 1962. Within two years he was a Tottenham player – and an exceptionally good one who gave us more than four years excellent service.

6 HARRY LOWE

Harry Lowe must have wondered what he had got himself into when he arrived from Brighton in April 1914 and he made his debut at Middlesbrough the following February.

We had lost there 6-0 the previous season but this time we would do better – going down 5-7 in the most bizarre of circumstances!

Jimmy Cantrell bagged four for us that day and you can imagine the conversation when he got home. "How did it go?" "Scored four." "Well done, what was the result…"

We went down that season.

7 JOHN BLAIR

Scottish striker John Blair scored on his Tottenham debut when we beat Everton 2-1 at home on the opening day of the 1926-27 campaign. He then became the first Spurs player to be sent off in a Football League game when he was dismissed at Huddersfield in the following January!

The former Third Lanark man scored nine goals in his first 11 games to finish the season with 11 and grabbed another four the following term including a hat-trick against Boro at the Lane when we won 4-2 in the September.

But his progress was impeded by injury and he was allowed to leave for Sheffield United the following month.

Meanwhile Spurs and Middlesbrough were relegated that season although Boro immediately came back as Division Two champions the following year. We would not return until 1933.

8 TERRY YORATH

Our Wales international made his Spurs debut against Boro on the opening day of season 1979/80 at White Hart Lane following his move from Coventry City. We lost the game 3-1 before drawing 0-0 at Ayresome Park in the November.

Terry was brought in to add bite and experience to what was a very forward-looking midfield at the time. But our frailties at the back meant that he was soon moved to a more centrally defensive role where he adapted well.

PLAYING A BLINDER!

Paul Anderson

Paul Miles caught up with a familiar face here recently and got the lowdown on what Peaky Blinders star Paul Anderson was doing at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium!

He might not be a Spurs fan, but a Peaky Blinder was among friends on his first visit to the new stadium recently. Well, one friend in-particular...

"I'm here because I was invited by a friend of mine," explained Paul Anderson, Arthur Shelby in the popular series and an actor with the likes of The Revenant, Hostiles and TV series Top Boy on his CV.

"I think you all call him the boss, the gaffer! Yes, Jose invited me in. We had lunch only a couple of weeks ago. I just said 'hello' to him in the tunnel. As I walked over, I was surrounded - it was like getting near the President! I said, 'I'm just going to say hello to my friend' and he said, 'come here and give me a hug', that was nice..."

Pitchside on a Champions League night, Paul was taken aback by his first experience of the stadium. "Just give me a ball!" he said. "I'll go out there, do a few kick-ups and get a few cheers. Look at this stadium. I haven't been here before but it's super-impressive."

Just the sort of words that could be used to describe Peaky Blinders. First aired in 2013, the series tells the story of the 'Peaky Blinders' gang and the exploits of the Shelby family in Small Heath, Birmingham, after the First World War. BAFTA award-winning, the fifth season of the series finished in September last year on BBC1, watched by an average of 7.2million viewers.

Paul told us: "The popularity is amazing. I remember reading the script first of all and I had no idea. The title alone. I'd never heard of the Peaky Blinders! I googled them and there was one picture. Google it now, and you'll find a few more. I thought it was a cockney musical or something like that. I couldn't have been further from the truth!

"The success...you never know what anything is going to be. You start it with the best intentions, like a football match, you want to win. I got that script and I wanted it to be good. Me and Cillian (Murphy, who plays Thomas Shelby, leader of the Peaky Blinders) had a long chat, but we never knew how successful it was going to be, and it's great that it is."

As always, we wanted to know how Paul got to where he is now, from an early appearance in Doctor Who back in 2005 right up to playing alongside Leonardo Di Caprio in The Revenant and now one of the most recognisable characters in British TV

Here's his story, in his own words...

"I was inspired by many people in my life. I've always been into books, films. I love films. I'd recite them, quote lines from movies, always have done.

"The honest answer is that I was dating a girl, I was in love and she encouraged me to be an actor, but I didn't know where to start. I had no idea on how to be an actor. Where do I go? I had no idea.

"I left school at 14 and applied for drama school. I thought 'if I'm going to do it, I'm going to do it right'. I had a few options. I could have been in a few football films, those London ones that were made and a very good friend of mine, Nick Love - who is a film maker - offered me a small part in one of his movies before I'd done anything.

"I said 'no' because I wanted to see what type of actor I could become and not just be cast in movies because I'm a guy from London who has some charisma.

"I went and trained to be an actor, studied classics, learned a craft, an art form, which is how I view acting. I still don't know if I'm any good, but that was one of the best things I've ever done.

"A lot of people describe it like that, 'the dream', but it's very true. Here I am standing pitchside at Tottenham, on a Champions League night, and I'm from a council estate in south-east London. I'm an actor and it's great to be here."

And we were delighted to see him!

PLAYER NAME:
JOHN PRATT

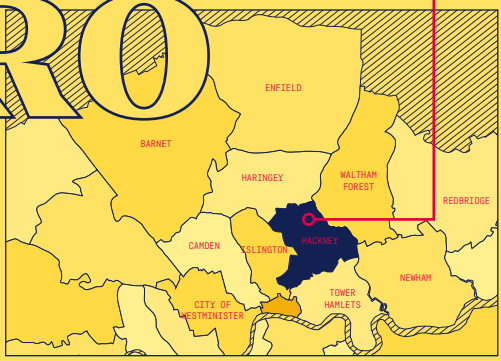
POSITION: MIDFIELD
LEAGUE APPEARANCES: 331
BORN IN: HACKNEY



Looking back on players spotted by Spurs playing locally in schools' football – and who went on to star in our first team. John Fennelly details the career of John Pratt.

The fact that midfielder John Pratt played under three different Spurs managers is a clear illustration of his value to the club. Respected by both team mates and opponents alike for his 100 per cent industry and application, John was a competitive performer who anchored our ambition in a deeper role, allowing others to advance in the knowledge that the back door was secure.

And John could certainly play himself even if his outlook was to win the ball, pass and get back into position. Never flamboyant or seeking to over-elaborate, he respected the Tottenham mantra of 'keep it simple, make it quick.' The fact that he also scored goals in all the senior competitions that he played for us was another major asset.

Bill Nicholson gave him his debut – alongside fellow club product Ray Evans – at Arsenal in March 1969. We suffered a real injury crisis that night against the title-chasing Gunners with Martin Chivers, Mike England, Phil Beal, Roger Morgan and Cyril Knowles all out as we literally fielded a reserve defence.

But Pratt responded well as we lost by the only goal with one newspaper acknowledging that he "played strongly" in a typically whirlwind environment.

John kept his place until the end of the season as he slowly started building a career that would make him a regular for years to come as successive bosses Terry Neill and Keith Burkinshaw continued to bolster the team's central core with his enterprise.

Burkinshaw subsequently recruited him to look after our youth team in 1983 after Pratt returned from a spell in North America and there was never any lack of enthusiasm as he conducted his training sessions at

John Pratt with Peter Shreeves and Steve Perryman

Cheshunt in a highly professional way but never without a smile.

John then took over Reserve team duties and when Peter Shreeves stepped up to follow Burkinshaw as Spurs chief, Pratt was the sensible choice as his assistant manager. That partnership continued until Shreeves left us in May 1986.

Born in Hackney, John impressed in local schools' football and joined our junior ranks. He had represented London in youth football and that initially took him to Brentford where he was spotted by our former Wales international winger Terry Medwin who recommended him to Bill Nick.

Pratt was promoted to amateur status before turning professional in November 1965 at a time when Nicholson was bringing through a whole host of exceptional home-grown talent. That competition in itself made it difficult for Pratt to break into the senior side but once he achieved it, he stayed for the next 12 seasons.

John had started out as a centre-half and would go on to illustrate his versatility by playing in several positions in our senior side. But central midfield was his hunting ground, where he never hid, made his more talented team mates look even better, enjoyed a tackle, won the ball, shielded the defence and worked tirelessly for the cause.

Yet, ironically, he was not always appreciated by the Spurs fans and could be used as a scapegoat when things were not going well – which was often illogical as no player mirrored the supporters' own devotion to the club than JP.

He was part of our UEFA Cup success of 1972 and was an ever-present in our League Cup run to the final the following year, although he was injured early at Wembley and forced to look on from the sidelines as his replacement Ralph Coates won it for us against Norwich. He also played in our UEFA Cup runners-up side of 1974.

John's testimonial against Arsenal at White Hart Lane in May 1978 pulled in a healthy 23,044 crowd before he left us for Portland Timbers two years later. He continues to work behind the scenes for us on a matchday.

AWAY MATCH

On his day, Jonathan Woodgate was one of the best central defenders in the country. An England international who was already challenging for a place in an excellent Leeds team as a teenager, Woody was a class act with all the natural playing qualities required for a top-class career.

The current Middlesbrough boss was born in the town but joined the trainee ranks at Elland Road in 1996 and showed such potential that he was a professional in less than a year. Leeds produced excellent home-grown talent at the time – like future Spurs Paul Robinson and Aaron Lennon – and Woodgate's all-round game impressed at home and abroad as United challenged at the top of the Premier League and in Europe.

His only problem was that he was unlucky with injuries but that did not deter Newcastle United who signed him in a big-money deal in January 2003. Real Madrid paid even more for him in August the following year.

Woody joined his hometown club in 2006 and by January 2008 he was a Tottenham player, scoring the winner for us in the Carling Cup Final in only his fifth game. He played for Stoke, then back to Boro where he later coached, promoted to his current role in June 2019.

You can find out more about all our Junior competitions on the Junior pages at tottenhamhotspur.com/fans, and here's Gracie to tell her own story of an unforgettable day:

"Just before Christmas my mum came home and told me that I had won a competition to be a mascot for Spurs Women at their first home game of the year against Manchester City. I was so excited and happy as I'd been to the game against Arsenal Women at the new stadium and met Kit Graham and Hannah Godfrey when they did their autograph session at the Tottenham Experience!

"I was really excited the morning of the match. I had chosen the friends I wanted to take with me and we arrived at The Hive at 1pm. I got taken in with the other girls to the changing room and we were all given kits to wear. Then we got to go out pitchside to watch the players warm up, and all the girls had a picture taken.

"It was so cool waiting in the tunnel for the players to arrive. I walked out with the captain Josie Green, and she was really nice. The music started playing and we followed the referees out to the middle of the pitch - it was amazing. We all shook hands with the referee and then I stood with Josie, the referee and Man City's captain for a photo. I then had to run all the way back to the tunnel so the match could start!

"We had really good seats to watch the game. Manchester City took the lead and I was a bit sad. Spurs Women played really well but they lost the match 4-1.

"After the game we went back to the tunnel and all the players came by and stopped so that I could get my programme signed. They all thanked us for going which was nice and I thanked them for letting me be their mascot! An AMAZING day!"

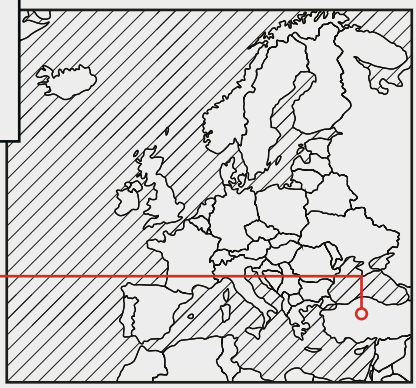
EURO ZONE



TURKEY
Capital: Ankara
Language: Turkish

Ahead of UEFA Euro 2020, Andy Greeves offers the lowdown on various nations that will be appearing at the European Championships as it celebrates its 60th anniversary. Tonight he takes a look at Senol Gunes' Turkey.

FORM GUIDE

Turkey were beaten just once in qualifying for UEFA Euro 2020, as they won seven and drew two of their other Group H fixtures to finish as runners-up to France in the final table.

Highlights of the qualifying campaign included a 2-0 victory over France in Konya while a goalless draw with Iceland in Istanbul on 14 November last year saw them seal their fifth qualification for the finals of a European Championships.

KEY PLAYER

Everton striker Cenk Tosun, who joined Crystal Palace on loan on Friday, scored five times during the UEFA Euro 2020 qualification campaign, with braces coming in 4-0 home and away victories over Moldova. He also got the only goal of the game as Turkey beat Albania in Istanbul last October.

Tosun was born in Wetzlar in Germany on 7 June, 1991, and began his career at Eintracht Frankfurt. He moved to Turkish side Gaziantepspor in 2011 and later signed for Besiktas before joining the Toffees in 2018. He represented Germany from Under-16 to Under-21 level before switching his international allegiance to Turkey in 2011. He has since scored 16 goals in 40 appearances for his parent's homeland.

SPURS CONNECTION

Our three competitive meetings with Turkish opponents in Europe to date have all come against Istanbul-based side Besiktas.

Egyptian midfielder Hossam Ghaly gave us a 32nd-minute lead against the 15-time Turkish Super League champions in our UEFA Cup Group B clash at the BJK Inonu Stadium on 19 October, 2006. Dimitar Berbatov sealed our 2-0 victory with a fine individual goal on 63 minutes. The Bulgarian raced onto a volleyed pass from Robbie Keane before dribbling the ball past defender Baki Mercimek and goalkeeper Vedran Runje to score.

Home fans applauded our players off the pitch after a fine performance against the 'Black Eagles'. We finished top of our UEFA Cup group that season to make it in to the knockout phase, while Besiktas missed out. We were eliminated at the quarter-final stage by eventual winners Sevilla.

We met Besiktas once again in the UEFA Europa League group phase during the 2014/15 season. Harry Kane netted in our 1-1 draw at White Hart Lane on 2 October, 2014 prior to former Newcastle United and Chelsea striker Demba Ba rescuing a point for the visitors with a penalty in the last minute.

The aforementioned Cenk Tosun scored Besiktas' goal in our 1-0 defeat in Istanbul on 11 December, 2014. The match was staged at the Ataturk Olympic Stadium while the Black Eagles' new ground – Vodafone Park – was being built on the site of their former home. The Turkish side went on to top Group F, with three wins and three draws, while we also progressed to the knockout phase by finishing us group runners-up. We were eliminated from the competition at the round of 32 stage by Italian side Fiorentina, while Besiktas were knocked out in the round of 16 by Club Brugge.

EURO HISTORY

Turkey ended a 36-year-wait to compete in the finals of a European Championships when they took on Croatia in their opening Group D match at UEFA Euro 1996 at Nottingham Forest's City Ground. Fatih Terim's side were beaten 1-0 that day and also suffered defeats to Portugal and Denmark on their tournament debut as they were eliminated from the competition at the group stage.

Four years later, Turkey – under the management of Mustafa Denizli – made it to the quarter-finals of Euro 2000. A 2-0 victory over tournament joint-hosts Belgium in Brussels on 19 June saw them finish second in Group B, which also contained Italy and Sweden. Denizli's side were beaten 2-0 by Portugal in their last eight tie.

Turkey went a stage further at Euro 2008, reaching the semi-finals. They finished second in Group A, which also contained Portugal, the Czech Republic and Switzerland before sealing a 3-1 penalty shootout victory over Croatia after their quarter-final tie in Vienna had finished 1-1 after extra-time. They lost 3-2 to Germany in a pulsating Basel semi-final six days later.

A 2-0 win over the Czech Republic in Lens on 21 June, 2016 was not enough to see Turkey progress to the knockout phase as one of UEFA Euro 2016's best third-placed teams. Once again under the management of Fatih Terim, they lost to Group D's top two sides, Croatia and Spain, to suffer early elimination from the competition.

SPURS RESPECTS

We are justly proud of our superb and loyal support, home and away. We all have a responsibility to act as ambassadors of Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. And act as considerate neighbours to those who live and work in the area around the stadium.

If you witness any form of anti-social abusive or discriminatory behaviour, homophobic language, crime, vandalism, violence, the use of smoke bombs or pyrotechnics close to you at any of our matches, please send a text to 07537 404821 along with your location (block/row/seat) and the location of the offence (block/row/seat).

Text 07537 404821 with – FOUL (language and behaviour); RACISM (racist chanting & shouting); HPH (homophobic chanting); DRINK (drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (smoking in the stadium); STAND (standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnics or smoke bomb).

SMOKING

There is no smoking or use of e-cigarettes permitted anywhere across the stadium campus.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION

In the unlikely event that we should have to evacuate the stadium, please adhere to the advice given by front line staff and on our public address system.

Continuing our Q&A feature for this season – using the year of the Club's formation as inspiration – as we ask our players to choose 18 lifestyle questions from a selection of 82. This evening it's the turn of Juan Foyth to take the hotseat.

1 What was your first holiday abroad?

Juan: "It was to the Dominican Republic. I went there for 10 days."

2 What is the best advice you have been given?

Juan: "In Argentina, in my early days in football, I was told to have my head cold but my heart hot. Basically, to be calm but play with passion."

3 If you could sit yourself down with your 16-year-old self, what advice would you give yourself?

Juan: "Just to always be happy."

4 If you could go back in time to anywhere – where would you go?

Juan: "I would go back to the summer of 2014. That's when my, now, wife, became my girlfriend."

5 What is your favourite smell?

Juan: "I love the smell of a BBQ. Especially when a steak is cooked on one."

6 What is your favourite journey?

Juan: "I like to go to Nueva Atlantis. It's a beach in Buenos Aires in Argentina."

7 Did you appear in a school play? If so, what character did you play?

Juan: "We didn't have plays at my school, but I did play the drums."

8 How do you like your eggs?

Juan: "Scrambled or as an omelette."

9 What's you most used WhatsApp group?

Juan: "I have one with my friends that we use for the PlayStation."

10 Coffee or tea?

Juan: "Definitely tea but if it had to be a coffee, it would be a latte."

11 Tell us a secret…

Juan: "I do a lot of swimming."

12 What do you remember about your Spurs debut?

Juan: "It was against Barnsley in the Carabao Cup at Wembley. Of course, it was a happy moment for me as we won 1-0 and we got the clean sheet."

13 Which language would you like to speak?

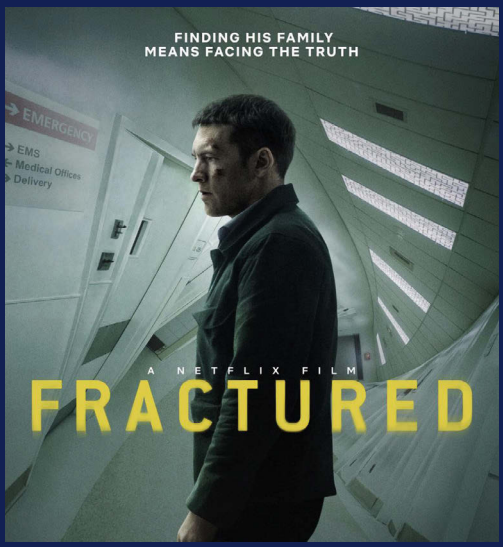
Juan: "Italian."

14 What is your favourite cheese?

Juan: "Babybel – it's not the most exciting but I like it!"

15 What was the last film you watched?

Juan: "Fractura – it's on Netflix."



16 What did you want to be growing up?

Juan: "I have always wanted to be a footballer."

17 Describe the way you dance…

Juan: "So bad… I'm all stiff and rigid, like wood."

18 What is your favourite sandwich?

Juan: "Just ham and cheese."
